If you need help making a compliment/complaint then please let us know and we will arrange for someone to work with you – this person is called an advocate.

What happens next?

All compliments received will be passed on to the relevant person or team.

If you make a complaint it will be entered into our system. We will discuss with you how you want your complaint to be resolved and give you advice about your options, for example writing to you with our initial findings or arranging a meeting with you.

We hope to be able to sort out your complaint quickly and will provide independent support and keep in contact with you throughout.

In a small number of cases we may be unable to resolve your complaint and we will advise you about contacting the Local Government Ombudsman.
